ASSAULTED IN PEIRCE CITY YARDS

Man Found With Serious Gash In Head

Hurbert W. Hotchkiss, age 25 years, a stranger, was found in the train yards of the Frisco Railway Co., just north of the Glassford crossing on the right side of the track with a horrible cut over the left eye by chief-of-police Alsop, his son, John, and Mr. William O'Connor, early Sunday morning.

Mr. Alsop was called to the phone about 5 o'clock Sunday morning by Mr. O'Connor who said he had heard someone calling for help during the night and asked Alsop to come out and investigate. As they neared the place where the man lay, someone arose from among the weeds near there and ran away. While O'Connor pursued him the other two examined the wounded man. The gash was in half moon shape and looked as though it might have been made with a lantern.

After getting the man on his feet, they took him to the crossing and waited for John Alsop who brought Mr. Yoakum and his rig. Mr. O'Connor having given up the chase after the stranger, came to the Frisco depot with the party. After telegraphing to the manager of the Frisco who refused to take the victim in charge, Mr. Alsop took him to his home and called Dr. Rodman who dressed his wound. Money and papers were found in the man's pocket which identified him and gave his home address as Duncan, Ok. His folks were notified and wired back to Alsop to give him best of care and they would come at once. One brother came in Monday morning from Batesville, Ark., and his other brother and sister came from Duncan, Ok., Monday noon. They were very thankful to Chief Alsop and those who had helped the young man. He was taken to Springfield Monday evening and last reports say concussion of the brain is feared. Mr. Hotchkiss was unable to remember anything that had happened after he left the Frisco depot.—Peirce City Leader.
